Winter Week 18

Kudos and Highlights

Patricia

Is celebrating her sister's pregnancy; she's expecting a boy!

Melissa

Went to work this past Tuesday and Wednesday. She also drew a picture of Yoda for Star Wars Day . Finally she did some shredding and made a dreamcatcher.

Noah

Led the DEI Coucil Meeting this past Wednesday in Plainview and started a team to fundraise for the AHRC Walk in October.

Jeri Lynn

Her cousin welcomed a baby girl this past week and she is looking forward to meet her 2nd girl cousin. She also went to the bowling party on Saturday and although she didn't bowl, she enjoyed seeing some of her friends.

Anthony

Went to Sachem Con at his local library and saw a Kung Fu Lions show, did Pokémon drawing, participated in a Cosplay Costume Play, read Comic Books and made pins and crafts. He also did the Patchogue Village walk, made wreaths and push pins at his program. Finally, he went to a new job site where he cleaned buckets and filled up water for horses at a ranch. .

Sohum

Went for a walk with his friend this past weekend and watched the movie, "Lady and the Tramp". He also went to a dance

Michelle R.

Has been improving on her Canva skills by making fliers for the AHRC Walk. She also created QR codes for her flier without any assistance.

Gloria

Is continuing with her yoga, Zumba, and hip hop classes. She also went to the Franklin Square Library open house and went out to eat at Panera Bread afterwards.

Michelle B.

Went to Belmont State Park for a walk. She also saw Jeri Lynn and her mom, Patty, and Mrs. Jo at bowling this past Saturday. She also scored a 105 & 89 bowling! She is also excited that her nephew, Andrew is back home from his first year of college at West Virginia.

STRIVES

- We reviewed the May DEI Newsletter and discussed all the different topics of the month.
- We focused on Mental Health Awareness Month and how to recognize signs that someone may need help.
